

WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

Designed for outstanding female leaders at a significant inflection point in their career, the Women in Leadership programme develops your executives with the mind set, network and leadership skills to step up to a top level role.

BUILD DIVERSITY INTO YOUR LEADERSHIP PIPELINE

London Business School (LBS) will work closely with you, to ensure your executives can overcome roadblocks to growth and success upon programme completion. As their sponsor you'll have the opportunity to join a global network of other sponsors supporting talented female executives.

EMPOWER YOUR LEADERS

The Women in Leadership programme supports the development, performance and retention of your most talented business women.

THROUGH OUR BLENDED LEARNING JOURNEY YOUR LEADERS WILL:

- Emerge inspired and energised, maximising both their personal and professional impact
- Unlock their potential through flexible virtual sessions, immersive classroom sessions and group and individual coaching
- Gain the confidence, knowledge and tools to accelerate the transition to senior leadership roles
- Begin with a 1.5-hour virtual session, then 4.5 days on our London campus, followed by virtual sessions (approximately 9.5 hours over seven weeks)
- Develop an action plan to deliver impact and engage stakeholders, line managers and sponsors back into your organisation.

This was the most powerful experience of my professional journey in the past 15 years.
